Temperanceville.

The potato bug is much in evidence in this section.

Our farmers are putting out sweet potato sprouts.

Our village is being plentifully supplied at present with fish of many varieties.

Our public school commencement is attracting much attention and it looks as if it would be a grand success.

Mr. Geo. W. Bunting is still quite sick at his home near this place. He has the sympathy of many friends in this section in his afflictions.

Since the sale of the Brodwater farm several lots have been sold and a building boom will be ours at an early day. The lumber is being cut for several new dwellings.

All of our citizens enjoyed the letter of Hon. John R. Rev in reply to Mr. Quinby and it has borne good fruit already. The dust has been swept off several Bibles in looking up his references in same.

Parkley.

Mr. L. F. Hinman, of Altoona, Pa., spent a few days in town recently.

Mr. A. P. Platt, of Hazleton, Pa., made a business trip here a few days ago.

Mrs. D. Wiltbank left a few days ago for an extended stay on Chincoteague.

Mr. Lockwood King, formerly assistant R. R. agent here, has moved to Princess Anne, Md.

added to their skating rink and mercy-go-round other attractive features, including picture shows.

One of our prettiest and most sociable young ladies, stopping at Hotel D'Evans, was mistaken recently for a stranger by the watch dog. She fled, left her escort and dropped her bag of peanuts.

The minstrel show and entertainment was given again, by special request, last Saturday, before a crowded house. Much enjoyment was had out of it, judging by the bursts of laughter heard. Mr. Yaas-air and Aunt Chloe were the hits of the evening.

An entertainment and commencement exercises will be held in the hall here by the Harborton High School, on the 7th and 8th. On commencement exercises will be held.

All are cordially invited.

A very pleasant and greatly enjoyed social was held Monday night in honor of the faculty of the Harborton High School at the residence of Miss Cleve Martin. Games and 42 were played and enjoyed by all until a late hour, when an elegant and most sumptuous repast was served. Everybody voted the nothings a right jolly good fellow.

A ball game was played here last Saturday between Harborton and Pungoteague. The visitors won, the score being, but say it easy, 27 to 7.
The pitching of Jas. Bahrer was splendid but he got poor support, most of the runs being made on rank errors made by the home team. They are open to challenges from teams whose players are not over 15 years old.

On the 27th a debate was held in the hall by the order of Red Men on subject, "Who rules the home, the man or woman." Able speeches were made by Wm. M. Taylor for the woman and D. G. Agathion for the man. Quite a large crowd present.
The judges after retiring and being out eight minutes, brought in a verdict for the woman, four voting for the woman and one against. Verdict received in a burst of applause.
